The Atlanta Charter Middle School is accepting applications for the 2008-2009 school year!

Applications and enrollment information are available on the school's website and at the school.

The Atlanta Charter Middle School (ACMS) is a free public school of choice, open by lottery admissions to all students zoned for an Atlanta Public School in grades six through eight. Opened in the fall of 2005 by a group of area parents and educators, ACMS is committed to student-centered and project-based learning. ACMS is a member of the Coalition of Essential Schools (www.essentialschools.org) and follows the organization's principles of helping students to use their minds well, personalized instruction, and a democratic community. Please visit our website (www.atlantachartermiddle.com) for more information about the school and a copy of the application.

Enrollment is open to students zoned for an Atlanta Public School.

The school is in the primary attendance zone for NPU-W residents. NPU-W includes the neighborhoods of Benteen, Boulevard Heights, Custer/McDonough/Guice, East Atlanta, Grant Park, Ormewood Park, and Woodland Hills.

All prospective students and their parents must attend one of the following Information Sessions at the school:

- ◆ Thursday, January 31st from 7:00 to 8:30 PM
- ◆ Saturday, February 9th from 10:00 to 11:30 AM
- ◆ Saturday, February 23rd from 10:00 to 11:30 AM

Please contact us to learn more about this innovative public charter school, to receive an application, or to sign up to attend one of the Information Sessions.

The Atlanta Charter Middle School does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, disability, or veteran status in its education programs or in admission to, access to, treatment in, or employment in its programs or activities.
