1. Engage in any business or transaction with, or have a financial or other personal interest, direct or indirect, in the affairs of NCS/ACMS that would result in a financial benefit, except for a financial benefit of a nominal or incidental amount, to the official, appointed officer, employee, or relative of such person, or which would tend to impair his/her independence of judgment or action in the performance of official duties.
2. Engage in or accept private employment or render services for private interests when such employment or service is incompatible with the proper discharge of his/her official duties or would tend to impair his/her independence of judgment or action in the performance of his/her official duties.
3. Disclose information or use information, including information obtained at meetings that are closed pursuant to Title 50, Chapter 14, of the O.C.G.A. concerning the property, government, or affairs of NCS/ACMS or any office, department, or agency thereof, not available to members of the general public and gained by reason of his/her official position for his/her personal gain or benefit, or to advance his/her financial interests or that of any other person or business entity.
4. Represent private interests in any action or proceeding against NCS/ACMS or any office, department, or agency thereof.
5. Vote or otherwise participate in the negotiation or the making of any contract with any business or entity in which he/she, or his/her relative, has a financial interest.
6. Solicit, accept, or agree to accept gifts, loans, gratuities, discounts, payment, or services from any employee, person, firm, or corporation that to his/her knowledge is interested directly or indirectly in any manner whatsoever in business dealings with NCS/ACMS or any office, department, or agency thereof; provided, however, that an elected official who is a candidate for public office may accept campaign contributions and services in connection with any campaign.
7. Vote or otherwise participate in an appointment, employment, or promotion decision related to anyone he/she knows or should know would create a direct or indirect monetary benefit or economic opportunity for himself/herself.
8. Have a personal interest, directly or indirectly, in school real estate, school textbooks, or school materials and supplies of any kind whatsoever.
9. Sell, solicit, or offer for sale, to the Board or to any official or employee of the Board, directly or indirectly, any kind of school real estate, textbooks, or school materials and supplies, nor receive any salary, bonus, or commission on any such sales.

The Boards of NCS/ACMS may not:

1. Employ one of its members for any position at NCS/ACMS.

2. Do business with a partnership or corporation partially owned by a Board member.

3. Do business with a bank or financial institution where a Board member is an employee, stockholder, director, or officer when such member owns 30 percent or more stock in that institution.
